Benefit Concert for Northminster’s Refugee Family Is This Afternoon at 2 p.m.

Don’t forget that today at 2 o’clock in the sanctuary Northminster is hosting a special concert. There is no charge but during the recital, an offering will be taken to benefit the Syrian refugee family that NPC is co-sponsoring with Refugee One.

Today’s selections include a diverse repertoire of Broadway and classical music focusing on themes of New Worlds Transition Home

Family and Love — themes that surround refugees as they transition to a new place. Please join us to enjoy the music of Northminster’s Music Director, Christopher Owen, NPC’s professional soloist quartet and friends — and maybe even a special guest or two!
