Northminster Seeks New Youth Director

Our search for a new Youth Director is underway! We are very excited about finding someone who can not only engage the youth as participants in our programs, but can also equip and deploy them as partners in mission and ministry in our church and the community.

Our goal is to reach out to at least 300 potential candidates for this position, and we need your help. If you can think of people who would be interested in being our new Youth Director, please email Pastor Jessica (jgregory@northminpres.org) with their contact information.
