November 20th Is Samaritan Sunday

Next Sunday, Northminster’s Parish Associate, Rev. Ann Ohlrogge Johnson, will be our preacher in a service celebrating the partnership between Northminster and the Samaritan Counseling Center, which she formerly directed and now serves as a counselor.

Also next week, after Fellowship Time, our Adult Education Committee is holding a discussion in the Guild Room at 11:10. The speaker, Rev. Joellen Hosler from the Samaritan Center, will focus on understanding the complexity of grief and how we can support each other through the grieving process.

The Samaritan Center provides mental health counseling in a Christian context. Nearly one third of all clients receive subsidies. Samaritan’s counselors routinely incorporate clients’ spirituality into their therapy. The counseling spans grief, depression, anxiety, parenting and marital relations. Northminster has supported the Samaritan Center for over 40 years.
