Women's Advent Event November 28th

All Northminster women, along with middle school and high school girls, are invited to attend the annual Northminster Women's Advent Event, to be held in the Guild Room on Monday, November 28th, from 7 to 9 p.m.

We will start with time for food and fellowship, to be followed by music and a short program. If you have any questions, please call Kate Brown at 847-337-6209 or email kberrybrown@gmail.com.

Adult Ed Focuses on Immigration & Advent Sunday, December 4th

Dr. Osvaldo Vena, Professor of New Testament at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, will be presenting at the Adult Education hour on December 4th in the Guild Room at 11:10 a.m.

The title of his presentation is "Advent through Immigrant Eyes." He will look at some key New Testament passages as they relate to immigrants and refugees coming to the USA and the connection between this reality and the liturgical seasons of Advent and Christmas. For more information, please go to <http://northminpres.org/adult-ed-focuses-immigration-december-4th/>.
