Come One, Come All to the Great Northminster Mission Fair Today!

- Come to Logan Hall after the worship service to talk to people from many of the organizations Northminster supports with your mission dollars. You will be able to learn about what they do to help our local, regional and global communities.
- There will be representatives from some familiar organizations like Family Promise, Curt's Café, Ember Kenya, the Night Ministry, Interfaith Action of Evanston and ASP, and some not-so-familiar like Grace Seeds, Hillside Church Food Pantry and Bernie's Book Bank. Also, there will be several organizations that we have yet to fund but have wonderful volunteer opportunities that may be of interest to you.
- Northminster's list of local mission partners includes Connections, Metropolitan Family Services, Samaritan Counseling Center, University Christian Ministry and Y.O.U. Some of our regional partners are Association House, Chicago Food Depository, Good News Partners and Sarah's Circle. Globally, some of our funding goes to Presbyterian Disaster Relief, Church World Service, Heifer International and IHCF African Christian Hospitals (Bill's Pills).

Coming Soon: Cinnamon Roll Sunday!

Don't forget to come to Fellowship Time on November 19th. The Fellowship Committee will be selling tins of five delicious cinnamon rolls for $8 and individual rolls for $1.75. Proceeds will be used to purchase a new double freezer for the kitchen (to go with the new range, ovens and microwave).

Help with Hearing

Northminster's hearing loop system in the sanctuary sends audio signals directly to any hearing aid with a telecoil – no background noise, no reverberation, just clear sound.

Non-hearing aid users can pick up a loop receiver and listen through a headset.
