The Program Year is about to start!

Sunday, September 10th: Banner Sunday and Picnic

Regular Sunday School returns, as does the Chancel Choir and the Narrative Lectionary in Worship and Christian Education. Worship is followed by our annual fall potluck picnic.

Thursday, September 14th: ToGather Returns!

With our new kitchen equipment installed and ready to go, our weekly church-wide, family-friendly, mid-week meals start again on the 14th at 6:15 p.m. Beginning on the 21st Pastor Michael will be offering a series of classes/ conversations exploring a progressive Christian ethic of relationships: personal, professional and intimate relationships. More details will follow soon!

Sunday, September 17th: Blessing of the Animals Service

At 2:00 p.m., we gather on the lawn, weather permitting, for a service that honors and gives thanks for our animal companions. Please join us for this special service.
In case of inclement weather, we will meet in Logan Hall.

Summer wanes, and most of us have access to seasonal fruits/vegetables. CHANGE HUNGER by placing change in the plate so that others can too!

So that all experience worship more fully, thank you for silencing your cell phones before the service begins.

Summer Sermon Series Update

Stump the Pastors from Now through September 3rd

The pastors are once again structuring sermons around your burning theological or philosophical questions. Thank you for so many great suggestions!

Today
Pastor Michael answers a question by newcomer Sunny Liston.

Next Sunday
Pastor Michael tackles a question about the changing nature of cultural norms about families.

Coming September 10th! We begin our second year in the Narrative Lectionary, with Old Testament texts in the Fall and an extended period in John's gospel in early 2018.
