Come to ASP's Car Wash Today

ASP volunteers will be on hand from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. today at the Kingsley School parking lot. Bring your cars, trucks and even bikes! And for only $10 you will get a wash while helping to send our adult and youth volunteers to Kentucky next month to make homes warmer, drier and safer for families in need. Tell your neighbors and friends!

Paul Vander Weele Organ Concert Tomorrow

Northminster's talented organist, Paul Vander Weele, is giving a recital tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 p.m. in the Elliott Chapel of the Evanston Presbyterian Homes.

Don't miss this opportunity to hear his "Gift of Music" as he plays pieces by Herbert Howells, J.S. Bach, Charles Marie Widor, Maurice Durufle and Larry King.

Program Year Ends with Youth Bells and Children's Choirs in Worship June 3rd

Plan to come to the worship service on June 3rd to hear all of Northminster's children's choirs. Youth Music Director Kate Lee will be leading the Youth Bells, the Cherub Choir and the Elementary Sunday School Choir as they make beautiful music for the Lord!

Come Hear the Chopin School Orchestra During Coffee Hour June 3rd

After the worship service on June 3rd, we will be treated with a concert by the Chopin School Orchestra during Fellowship Time in Logan Hall. This school is one that is helped by our Mission & Social Justice Committee and these concerts are their way of saying "thank you" for all the sports equipment and other supplies they have received.
