

COMING THIS SUMMER TO A NORTHMINSTER NEAR YOU

July 8th-29th Sermon Series: Why God and Why Church?

“Spiritual, but not religious.” “My faith is completely private.” These are common points of view today and they are certainly legitimate descriptions of where many people find themselves today. Our tradition calls us to engage our hearts, souls, minds and strength in a living faith that seeks to follow Christ. In recent conversations about the many challenges we are facing in the USA and around the world, the question was posed, “How does being a person of faith help us face these challenges? What does a Christian do about _____?” We’ll explore why and how people of faith and the church have a unique gift to offer the world today.

August 5th-26th Sermon Series: Why Scripture?

One of the central pillars of Presbyterian and Reformed Christian faith is the commitment to scripture as “the unique and authoritative witness to Jesus Christ.” We place our collective and historic encounter with scripture at the center of our worship and theology. What does that mean for progressive people of faith who also see the Bible, despite its inspiration by the Holy Spirit, as a human document, influenced by world views and prejudices of the time. In this series we will explore why scripture is still not only relevant but revelatory and revolutionary for us today.

General Assembly Report and Conversation on August

From June 16-23, over 550 Presbyterian clergy and Ruling Elders gathered in St. Louis as Commissioners to the 223rd General Assembly of the PC(USA). They considered a number of ministry, mission, social justice, and church governance issues. After Coffee Hour on August 12th, join Pastor Michael for a conversation about the assembly and a review of the actions taken by the Assembly—including the church’s first formal transgender-inclusive statement.
