End Hunger One Step at a Time: CROP HUNGER WALK, October 23rd

Join the Northminster 2016 CROP Hunger Walk Team on October 23rd for a Sunday afternoon walk along the lake front. We will start from the First Congregational Church of Evanston at 1445 Hinman. Registration is at 1 p.m. and the walk starts at 2 p.m. For details, go to crophungerwalk.org/skokiieil.

CROP Walk raises funds for Church World Service (CWS) and local beneficiaries dedicated to helping the hungry, many of whom are children. There’s a Golden Route for those who can’t quite walk three miles and there are rest stops with goodies along the way. Also, this is an opportunity for Northminster teens to earn some Community Service credits.

If you cannot walk this year, there are other opportunities to help: Support a walker with a donation (completely tax deductible, and possibly matched by your employer); Walk-the-Web (WOW) indicating you are from Northminster (crophungerwalk.org/skokiieil.org); Donate pre-packaged goodies for the rest stops. For questions and to sign up, see Pat Drinkwine during Fellowship Time today.
