Summary of the September Session Meeting

On Wednesday, September 21st, the Session addressed the following matters:
—Preliminary Approval of the 2018 Challenge Budget
—Approval of a contract for a review of Northminster's 2016 financial records as recommended by the Book of Order.
—Approval of a concert and home-stay opportunity in connection with a November 2nd Concert at Northminster featuring choirs of Northeastern Illinois University, Northminster, and a German youth choir who will be visiting the area from October 31 to November 3.
—Discussion of 5 topics identified by Mayor Steven Hagerty at last week's Evanston Interfaith Clergy and Religious Leaders luncheon as the key issues facing Evanston at the present time and how the church might engage these issues.

So that all experience worship more fully, thank you for silencing your cell phones before the service begins.

Rev. Ann Rosewall Speaks Today on the PC(USA) Colombia Accompaniment Program

During Adult Education time on September 24th, Rev. Ann Rosewall will lead a presentation about the Colombia Accompaniment Program of the PC(USA). She spent this February in partnership with the Presbiterio de la Costa in Barranquilla, Colombia, traveling the region and learning about the vital role the church plays in redeveloping this war-torn area.

Colombia is in the midst of a peace process that is imperfect at best, so the need for a ministry of presence with communities displaced by violence is all the more important. This peaceful, transformative program engages all efforts of prayer, education and advocacy.

New Post-ToGather Class Is Under Way!

Pastor Michael Kirby is leading a discussion series, "Go and Do Likewise" Thursdays after ToGather in the Guild Room at 7 p.m. The seven-week series will look at "Personhood, Relationships and Sexual Intimacy: An Ethical Conversation Rooted in the Gospel of Luke and the Book of Acts."

The second discussion, this coming Thursday, will move from a consideration of personhood to an examination of the ancient and contemporary ethics of interpersonal relationships in light of our Image-of-God -centered understanding of ourselves and all we meet. Please join us!
