

SPECIAL OFFERINGS
PENTECOST

The Pentecost Offering,
one of four special offerings sponsored by the PC(USA), supports

ministries that shape Christian formation in the first third of life and inspire our young people to live lives of faith. This year, 40% of Northminster's contributions go to Curt's Cafe and its essential programs to assist young people in making fresh starts and healthier choices.
Envelopes are in pew racks.

So that all experience
worship more fully, thank you for silencing your cell phones before
the service begins.

Northminster is Marching in the Chicago Pride Parade on June 25th!

For many years, Northminster has been a part of the Chicago Coalition of Welcoming Churches, an interfaith organization serving all of Chicagoland working to build relationships among religious communities that share a commitment to welcoming and empowering lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender members and their families.

Every year, the Coalition is one of and often is the largest group that participates in the Pride Parade. This year, under the sponsorship of the Membership Committee, we are inviting all who are interested to join us.

Get you new Northminster T-Shirt and join the contingent traveling down on the Purple and Red Lines following the ASP Welcome Home Service to join our sisters and brothers from more than 30 religious communities who are a part of the Coalition. Watch this space for more details!
