Peace Cranes are Coming to Northminster!

Starting today, we'll periodically be providing opportunities for Northminster folks to be involved in creating our next liturgical art project.

The plan is to hang over 1000 peace cranes in the sanctuary on World Communion Sunday, October 1st. It's the Sunday when the Peacemaking and World Missions Special Offering is traditionally collected and it's a Sunday when we mark our unity in the global Christian community as people from many different traditions around the globe join in celebrating communion. Today and next Sunday, Pastor Michael will be leading tutorials in the Guild Room after Fellowship Time for all who would like to help out.
Come fold a crane or two, won't you?

Interested in International Mission Work?

This afternoon at 3:00 p.m. at the First Congregational Church House in Evanston (1417 Hinman Ave.) learn about month-long mission experiences with the Presbyterian Church in Colombia.
Spanish language not required; Open hearts desired!
Find out how the PC(USA) is involved in the Colombian peace process, visit communities in the city and countryside, and connect with people who continue to struggle for political, social and spiritual wholeness. Today meet others who are interested in this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, and those who have already served!

The farmers' markets are full, but many can't afford their healthy offerings. CHANGE HUNGER by dropping your change in the plate!

So that all experience worship more fully, thank you for silencing your cell phones before the service begins.

Summer Sermon Series Update

Today and Next Sunday
We continue our series on the Psalms in anticipation of our Psalms-centered Vacation Bible School in August.
Today: A Psalm of Lament,
Next Sunday: Song as Prayer

Stump the Pastors from August 6th to September 3rd
The pastors will once again be structuring sermons around your questions. Fill out the form in today's bulletin to submit your question.
First up on August 6th:
Pastor Michael addresses a particularly challenging question presented by one of our youth, Emily Eloff.
