

Peace Cranes Are Coming to Northminster!

Continuing today, we are providing an opportunity for Northminster folks to be involved in creating our next liturgical art project.

The plan is to hang over 1000 peace cranes in the sanctuary on World Communion Sunday, October 1st. It's the Sunday when the Peacemaking and World Missions Special Offering is traditionally collected and it's a Sunday when we mark our unity in the global Christian community as people from many different traditions around the globe join in celebrating communion. Today, Pastor Michael will be presenting a video tutorial in the Guild Room after Fellowship Time for all who would like to help out.

Come fold a crane or two, won't you?

Summer Floor Cleaning is Upon Us Help Moving Furniture is Needed

Next week, Davit will be hauling out the polisher and the steam cleaner and tending to some of our floors and carpets which have picked up a bit of grime over the last year.

We need your help preparing spaces for Davit to start. Can you hang around after the peace crane work in the Guild Room to help move all of the bigger furniture to one side in both of the large Nursery School class rooms on the 2nd floor and the Guild room?

For more information see Pastor Michael during Fellowship Time or before the crane project gets going this morning!

Summer Sermon Series Update

Today we conclude our series on the Psalms in anticipation of our Psalms-centered Vacation Bible School in August.

Today: How singing is a way we pray with our whole bodies.

Stump the Pastors from August 6th to September 3rd

The pastors will once again be structuring sermons around your questions. Thank you for so many great suggestions!

First up Next Sunday:
Pastor Michael addresses a particularly challenging question presented by one of our youth, Emily Eloff, about who gets into heaven!
