Interfaith Action's Emergency Shelter Training

The Interfaith Action Emergency Shelter will be open every night from December 1st to February 28th when the temperature is projected to be 20 degrees or below.

There are volunteer slots for greeting and set-up, overnight hosting (with a professional staff person), and clean-up in the early mornings. All volunteers need to be trained once. We are hosting training on Tuesday, November 6th at 7 p.m. in the Guild Room.

Family Promise Sign-up Starts Today!

Look for the Family Promise table during Fellowship Time. We will be hosting from November 25th through December 2nd. There is need for about 60 volunteers to cover overnight hosting, meals, activities, and room set-up/tear-down. Questions? Email Caryn Peterson (carynpet3@gmail.com).
