Adult Education Today

"Living Our Faith" with Rabbi Sam Gordon

After Fellowship Time today, join us at 11:05 a.m. in the Guild Room for "Living Our Faith" with Rabbi Sam Gordon from Sukkat Shalom Synagogue. He will share his perspective on antisemitism historically and then discuss the current situation in the U.S. and Europe.

Before coming to the North Shore, for 25 years, Rabbi Gordon served as a rabbi in the Chicago area. In 2013, President Barack Obama appointed Rabbi Gordon to be a member of the United States Holocaust Memorial Council.

Call for Coffee Hosts

We are in need of Fellowship Time Coffee Hosts to bring in treats on Sunday mornings.

The sign-up for 2019 is posted on the bulletin board outside the kitchen door in Logan Hall.

Please help us keep up this wonderful tradition of having goodies during our Fellowship Time after worship!

Fair Trade Coffee Sale Is Today

Don't miss your chance this month to buy a selection of coffee, tea and chocolates at Northminster's Fair Trade Sale. Look for the table in Logan Hall during Fellowship Time at 10:45 a.m.

If you would like to assist in this wonderful monthly mission program of Northminster email Lori Hatton (laurahatton@comcast.net), call her at 847-859-2307 or see her at the Fair Trade table.

Chancel Flowers Sign-up

The Chancel Flower 2019 sign-up chart is now posted in Logan Hall next to the kitchen door.

If you would like to donate flowers for worship for a specific date, sign up soon before the date is taken!

You can also reserve a date by calling Meredith Bechtel at 224-567-8450
